ELEGANZA ARTIGIANALE MADE IN ITALY

ELEGANCE ARTISAN MADE IN ITALY

Nel cuore di Matera nasce Rossini Sofas, azienda specializzata nella produzione di divani artigianali Made in Italy, dove tradizione manifatturiera e design contemporaneo si incontrano per creare prodotti unici ed eleganti.

Da oltre trent'anni, ogni divano viene realizzato con cura sartoriale all'interno dello stabilimento italiano: dal taglio delle pelli alle cuciture, fino alle finiture, ogni dettaglio racconta la passione per l'artigianato e la qualità autentica del Made in Italy.

Le collezioni Rossini nascono dalla ricerca continua di comfort, stile e innovazione, utilizzando materiali pregiati e lavorazioni attente anche alla sostenibilità. Ogni modello è pensato per durare nel tempo e trasformare la casa in uno spazio raffinato e accogliente.

Oggi Rossini Sofas rappresenta l'eccellenza italiana nel mondo dell'arredamento, mantenendo intatti i valori che l'hanno resa riconoscibile: qualità, artigianalità e attenzione per ogni singolo dettaglio.

In the heart of Matera, Rossini Sofas was born — a company specialized in the production of handcrafted Made in Italy sofas, where manufacturing tradition and contemporary design come together to create unique and elegant products.

For over thirty years, every sofa has been crafted with tailored precision inside the Italian production facility: from leather cutting to stitching and finishing, every detail reflects a deep passion for craftsmanship and the authentic quality of Made in Italy.

Rossini collections are born from a continuous pursuit of comfort, style, and innovation, using premium materials and production processes that also pay close attention to sustainability. Each model is designed to stand the test of time and transform the home into a refined and welcoming space.

Today, Rossini Sofas represents Italian excellence in the world of furniture design, while preserving the values that have made the brand recognizable: quality, craftsmanship, and attention to every single detail.

Artù

Enveloping design, regal comfort.

Created by the Rossini Sofas Design Center, the Artù model redefines the contemporary living room by blending striking aesthetics with absolute relaxation. The structure stands out for its full lines, generous armrests, and exquisite tailored visible stitching, which highlight the attention to detail and the clean volumes.

Thanks to its versatile modularity, Artù adapts naturally to any interior style, appearing sophisticated and bold in the dark-toned linear version, or welcoming and bright in the sectional configuration with neutral nuances. The deep, ergonomic seating is designed to provide ideal support, transforming the sofa into the true centerpiece of home well-being. A timeless piece that strikes the perfect balance between architectural rigor and domestic warmth.

Cocoon

The embrace of great design, the art of hospitality.

The Cocoon model bears the prestigious signature of Maurizio Manzoni, an internationally renowned architect and designer celebrated for his ability to establish a dialogue between high Italian craftsmanship and the needs of contemporary living. Founder of Studio Memo in Florence, Manzoni is globally recognized for his humanistic approach to design, where each piece of furniture is not a simple object but a domestic architecture conceived to generate emotions and welcome the body in total harmony. With Cocoon, the designer refines the concept of a protective nest, translating it into a silhouette of extraordinary scenographic impact.

Club

Contemporary elegance meets weightless style.

Born from the excellence of the Rossini Sofas Design Center, the Club model embodies the perfect synthesis of geometric rigor and domestic warmth. Its slender silhouette is distinguished by a base raised off the ground, giving it an extraordinary feeling of visual lightness, further enhanced by the choice between elegant polished metal feet or warm wooden supports. The true hallmark of Club lies in the master craftsmanship of its details, beautifully showcased by the exquisite cross-stitching that profiles the armrests and seat cushions, turning every line into a design statement. The soft, textured upholstery—presented in a warm tan leather tone—cradles the body with compact yet generous volumes, engineered to guarantee impeccable comfort. Whether standing alone or paired to create a sophisticated conversation area, the Club sofa furnishes the living space with timeless charm and a strong metropolitan personality.

Flow

The rhythm of comfort, the fluidity of design.

Signed by the Rossini Sofas Design Center, the Flow model reinterprets the living space concept through a dynamic interplay of geometries, asymmetries, and striking material combinations.

True to its name, it evokes an aesthetic fluidity that comes to life in soft, light-toned, textured cushions, elegantly punctuated and supported by structural elements in contrasting warm rust and terracotta hues. The true strength of Flow lies in its distinct architectural modularity.

The composition unfolds naturally, alternating wide linear seats equipped with integrated lumbar support with a gently shaped open-end terminal, perfectly suited to accommodate a minimalist, integrated side table. This sofa does not just furnish a room—it shapes the surrounding environment, offering a tailorable relaxation experience and a sophisticated aesthetic ideal for those seeking a creative centerpiece with a cosmopolitan character.

Glamour

The essence of contemporary allure.

The result of aesthetic research by the Rossini Sofas Design Center, the Glamour model infuses the living area with a magnetic and sophisticated character. Its silhouette stands out for an extraordinary structural lightness, defined by a sleek, raised base resting on modern and elegant polished metal feet. The rigorous geometric clarity of the volumes dialogues harmoniously with a softness engineered to offer a high-level relaxation experience.

The true hallmark of Glamour lies in its refined tailored details, such as the delicate tufted pattern enriching the wide seats and the meticulous craftsmanship of the edges that enhances its silhouette. Thanks to a strong modular soul, the sofa adapts with natural eclecticism to grand metropolitan spaces, proving majestic in its linear configuration or dynamic in sectional compositions with a chaise longue. Presented both in warm ochre tones and elegant gray shades, Glamour redefines everyday luxury with an impeccable and cosmopolitan style.

Icaro

The lightness of design, the purity of comfort.

Conceived by the Rossini Sofas Design Center, the Icaro model expresses an ethereal and minimalist elegance, ideal for enhancing the brightest and most airy contemporary living spaces. Its aesthetic is distinguished by the slender, finely calibrated thickness of the structure and armrests—a design choice that maximizes the seating area while maintaining an incredibly discreet visual footprint. Raised off the ground by slim, dark metal stiletto feet, Icaro almost seems to float within the room, evoking a sense of total spatial freedom. Every element is engineered to offer a welcoming yet composed softness, beautifully apparent in the large backrest cushions that invite extended, personalized relaxation, further enhanced by matching plush lumbar pillows. The care of tailored craftsmanship emerges in the subtle stitching profiling the sides, caressing the surfaces with artisanal precision. Striking and magnetic both in the sectional configuration with a chaise longue in a refined powder blue, and in the rigorous smoke-gray linear version, the Icaro sofa furnishes with a touch of understated, sophisticated modernity.

Living

The dynamism of forms, the celebration of relaxation.

Signed by the Rossini Sofas Design Center, the Living model evokes through its very name its main vocation: to be the dynamic, beating heart of the home. Its aesthetic is distinguished by a fascinating visual contrast, where the rigorous composure of the backrest and armrests dialogues with the generous, welcoming nature of the seats. The true protagonist is the refined geometric tufted craftsmanship that embellishes the cushions—a detail with strong artisanal appeal that brings movement, rhythm, and an unmistakable texture to the entire structure.

Raised off the ground by slim, modern corner feet in dark metal, Living expresses a structural lightness that streamlines its silhouette, making it perfect for enhancing both grand open spaces and more intimate lounge settings. The sectional configuration unfolds with striking proportional harmony, offering wide seating surfaces enriched by plush loose pillows that invite informal gathering and total well-being. Upholstered in a textured, distressed charcoal gray tone, this sofa furnishes the space with a contemporary elegance that is both bold and deeply sophisticated.

Narciso

Beauty mirroring comfort, elegance that captivates.

Born from the excellence of the Rossini Sofas Design Center, the Narciso model lives up to its name, standing as a masterpiece of magnetic aesthetics and proud visual harmony.

Its appearance is striking for the generosity of its forms and the softness that radiates from every single line. High, incredibly enveloping backrests connect with wide, welcoming seats, promising a regal comfort experience calibrated to support the body during moments of complete relaxation.

Defining Narciso's unique character is the meticulous tailored craftsmanship, beautifully evident in the refined vertical piping that punctuates the armrest design and enhances the structure's thickness.

Gently raised off the ground by elegant, discreet dark metal feet that seamlessly integrate at the corners, the sofa maintains a perfect visual lightness despite its rich volumes. Stunning both in the shades of fabric gray that highlight its minimal-chic soul, and in the monumental, warm caramel leather version, Narciso dominates the living space with an innate and irresistible class.

Technical data sheet

Ortisei

The majesty of comfort, the perfect sanctuary of relaxation.

Passionately conceived by the Rossini Sofas Design Center, the Ortisei model evokes through its very name a sense of profound and regenerating comfort, inspired by the stillness and well-being of alpine landscapes. Its architecture is a celebration of rich and generous volumes, characterized by wide and inviting seats embellished with a subtle geometric tufting and large fixed backrests that offer a solid, composed, and enveloping support. The armrests, imposing yet softly shaped, define the structure with a reassuring feeling of solidity, intimacy, and protection. Gracefully suspended off the ground by discreet and slim dark metal feet that elegantly raise the structure, the sofa maintains a perfect visual balance, lightening the importance of its monumental proportions. The care for tailored details emerges in the precise stitching that profiles its contours, enhancing the authentically artisanal soul of the project and making this model extremely versatile—capable of adapting to textured fabrics or fine leathers to transform the living area into an oasis of sophisticated, stable, and luxurious conviviality.

Plane

The horizon of relaxation, the purity of lines.

Born from the design excellence of the Ros-sini Sofas Design Center, the Plane model celebrates geometric elegance through a rigorous, essential, and strongly contemporary silhouette. Its name evokes the linearity and cleanness of orthogonal planes, where slim backrests and armrests meet to redefine the boundaries of the living space. This light architecture is engineered to maximize the seating surface, which, with its large, geometric, and welcoming cushions, promises a calibrated and uncompromising comfort.

The true value of Plane lies in its incredible tailored and modular versatility. Stunning and sculptural in the three-seater linear version raised off the ground on discreet metal feet, the sofa transforms into a luxurious oasis of relaxation in its monolithic sectional configuration, which rests elegantly on a continuous base frame. Enriched by matching lumbar pillows and enhanced by textured upholstery—ranging from the warm, natural tones of rope-colored fabric to the bold character of smoke gray—the Plane model furnishes the living area with understated class and a distinct cosmopolitan attitude.

Prestige

The status of relaxation, the excellence of form.

The result of the high design standards of the Rossini Sofas Design Center, the Prestige model evokes through its very name an ideal of aristocratic comfort and absolute aesthetic value. Its imposing, sculptural architecture is expressed through full volumes, rigorous lines, and generous proportions, all conceived to stand as the visual and emotional centerpiece of the living area. The high, finely shaped backrest dialogues with wide, welcoming armrests, promising an enveloping and regal seating experience designed down to the smallest ergonomic detail. Highlighting the exclusivity of Prestige is the extraordinary artisanal care of the finishes, beautifully visible in the refined tailored stitching that outlines its profiles with millimeter precision. Resting stably on a structure that elegantly skims the floor, the sofa reveals exceptional compositional versatility, capable of moving from the compact composure of the taupe linear version to the immense, welcoming majesty of the cream-colored sectional configuration. Enhanced by matching decorative pillows and a soft-to-the-touch textured weave, the Prestige model is the premier choice for those who view furniture as the ultimate expression of luxury, comfort, and proud Italian identity.

Tivoli

The harmony of comfort, the purity of relaxation.

Born from the design excellence of the Rossini Sofas Design Center, the Tivoli model expresses a sophisticated, timeless elegance, envisioned to become the ideal sanctuary for daily domestic life. Its silhouette stands out for a design of grand visual breadth, characterized by wide and deep single-cushion seats that offer an immediate invitation to rest. The geometrically shaped, generous armrests frame the sides of the structure, providing a reassuring sense of solidity and composure.

The true secret behind Tivoli's comfort is revealed in its backrests, equipped with reclining and adjustable headrests that allow you to customize the seating ergonomics to satisfy any desire for relaxation. Gracefully suspended on modern dark metal sled legs, the sofa lightens its substantial volumes, seamlessly integrating into the most demanding contemporary living spaces. Stunning both in linear arrangements and majestic sectional versions—enhanced by plush upholstery in soft, neutral tones like pearl gray—Tivoli combines rigorous formal cleanliness with a total and enveloping well-being experience.

Zenith

The apex of tailored elegance, the purity of line.

The Zenith model bears the signature of Maurizio Manzoni, a Florentine architect and designer widely esteemed on the international luxury furniture stage. Renowned for his unique ability to fuse formal rigor, artistic sensibility, and ultimate ergonomics, Manzoni conceives Zenith as the highest point of splendor—the absolute zenith—in the balance between modernity and craftsmanship. Through this project, the designer transforms the sofa into a true piece of suspended architecture, envisioned to redefine the aesthetics of the contemporary living area with a clean and elegant graphic stroke.

The silhouette of Zenith is distinguished by the extraordinary geometric cleanness of its volumes and the slender profile of its outer frame, which maximizes the space dedicated to relaxation without weighing down the room. This light and essential structure accommodates large seat and backrest cushions with a soft, finely crafted texture, enriched by exquisite tufting details and tailored stitching that punctuate its rhythm. Raised off the ground by minimalist metal feet, the sofa expresses a distinct modular soul, beautifully showcased in this configuration by a trapezoidal end unit and a refined palette of warm grays, completed by contrasting decorative cushions in brick-red and ochre tones. Zenith is the ideal choice for those seeking a designer masterpiece that combines regal comfort with understated monumentality.
